General Information

This Certificate of Currency is issued for information purposes only and confers no rights on the recipient.

This Certificate does not extend or amend the cover provided by the Policies listed herein. Information contained in this Certificate is current as at the above Date of Issue only. The Policy may be subject to cancellation or amendment at any time.

These Policies are legal contracts between the Policyholder and the Insurer. The policyholder pays the premium, and the Insurer provides the cover the Policyholder has chosen as set out in the Policy Schedules, occurring during the period of insurance shown on the policy schedules. The Beneficiaries / Insured Persons of this Policy do not have the right to cancel the insurance contract between the Policyholder and the Insurer.

For full terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions, always refer to the Policy Wordings and Policy Schedules.

Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice describes how the Insurer collects and uses the personal information of insureds, beneficiaries, claimants and other parties (for the purpose of this notice “you”) when the Insurer is providing their insurance and reinsurance services.

The information provided to the Insurer, together with medical and any other information obtained from you or from other parties about you in connection with this policy, will be used by the Insurer for the purposes of determining your application, the operation of insurance (which includes the process of underwriting, administration, claims management, analytics relevant to insurance, rehabilitation and customer concerns handling) and fraud prevention and detection. The Insurer may be required by law to collect certain personal information about you, or as a consequence of any contractual relationship the Insurer has with you. Failure to provide this information may prevent or delay the fulfilment of these obligations.

Information will be shared by the Insurer for these purposes with group companies and third party insurers, reinsurers, insurance intermediaries and service providers. Such parties may become data controllers in respect of your personal information. Because the Insurer operates as part of a global business, the Insurer may transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area for these purposes.

You have certain rights regarding your personal information, subject to local law. These include the rights to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and receipt of your personal information in a usable electronic format and to transmit it to a third party (right to portability).

The Insurer is committed to working with you to obtain a fair resolution of any complaint or concern about privacy. If, however, you believe that the Insurer has not been able to assist with your complaint or concern, you have the right to make a complaint to the relevant Data Protection Authority.

For more information about how we process your personal information, please see the Insurer's full privacy notice at: <https://www.hdi.global/legal/privacy/>

Dispute Resolution

Any dispute arising under these contracts of insurance or concerning its formation shall be determined in accordance with the law of the Commonwealth of Australia and the States and Territories thereof, and any disputes relating thereto shall be submitted to the jurisdiction of the courts of such State and Territory.

- b) loaned or rented to a Beneficiary or the Policyholder; and/or
- c) in the care, custody or control of a Beneficiary or the Policyholder.

Claims Conditions

Unless required by any applicable law or regulation, no indemnity will be paid for the liability of any Beneficiary who has not complied with the requirements of this section, which requirements shall be communicated by the Policyholder to all Beneficiaries.

Notification responsibilities of the Beneficiaries

In the event of any Accident which may result in a Claim a Beneficiary shall:

- Notify the Policyholder (as outlined in the section "How to make a claim") as soon as possible according to local law or regulation
- Take reasonable precautions to prevent and minimise any financial loss which might be caused as a result of the Accident
- Provide all relevant information and documents regarding the Accident and its consequences and supply such proof, information and sworn declarations as the Policyholder (or the Insurer) may require within the time frame requested
- Provide particulars of any other insurance providing the same cover as this Policy.

Fraudulent Claims

In the event, that a fraudulent claim is made under this Policy by or on behalf of a Beneficiary, the Insurer may recover from the Beneficiary any sums paid by the Insurer in respect of the claim and the Insurer will be entitled to avoid or withdraw from this Policy.

Other Insurance

If any liability covered under this Policy is also covered wholly or in part under any other insurance held by a Beneficiary, the Beneficiary must inform the Insurer of the existence of such other insurance when notifying a Claim. In such case, the Insurer shall not be liable except in respect of any excess beyond the amount which would have been payable under such other policy or policies.

Subrogation

If any payments are made under this Policy, the Insurer is entitled to exercise any rights of recovery held by the Beneficiary and/or the Policyholder. The Beneficiary and/or the policyholder must not do anything which reduces any such rights and must provide all such reasonable assistance as the Insurer may require in relation to such recovery. The Beneficiary shall co-operate with the Insurer and comply with all reasonable instructions from the Insurer.

Reimbursement

In case of a claim under this Policy, which was caused by the illegal use of a Lime Unit by a Beneficiary, the Insurer will be entitled to be reimbursed by the Beneficiary for any amounts paid in connection with an Accident. An illegal use is including but not limited to:

- a breach of local traffic laws or regulations; or
- the Beneficiary was under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.

In addition, where such Beneficiary has willfully caused any damages to the Insurer upon the occurrence of an Accident, the Insurer will also be entitled to reimbursement from a Beneficiary.
